Prices quoted are Net. Any items offered herein may be had on approval, but new customers are requested to furnish bank or business house references.

Please remember that this is only a small portion of our stock. Will be glad to hear from you in reference to specimens desired not offered herein. We guarantee all items to be genuine and as represented. Money refunded if not satisfactory in every respect.

Attention is called to our Mail Auction Sales—held frequently. These have always been most satisfactory to our customers. In case you do not receive the catalog let us know and we will place your name on our mailing list.

Postage and registration or express is always extra. A small charge will also be made to cover boxing, crating, etc., when same is necessary.

IMPORTANT

It is not possible to have every item offered always in stock, so please send a supplemental order making your second choice on as many items as you can.

Consignments solicited for our Fixed Price List Sales and also our Mail Auction Sales.

Cap and Ball.

Elegant pair finely balanced brass barrel duelling pistols 13½ in. long. Cal. .50 taking very large ball. 6¾ in. heavy octagon brass barrels, heavy walnut stock full length of weapon ending in black ornamental horn tip ¾ in. wide, ¾
in. back of this is another narrower
black horn band. Engraved hammer, nicely engraved screw, heavy steel ram-
rod with brass end, brass screw plates.
Heavy flat brass engraved trigger-guard, checkered grip, heavy engraved brass butt plate. Pistols are numbered 1 and 2 on the breech plate which is of engraved steel. Smooth strong working locks. Brass barrelled pistols are much rarer than ones with steel barrels.
This pair is the finest we have ever owned in brass, and would do credit to any collection no matter how large. In finest possible condition, and rare.
Price for pair$30.00

Pair 11 in. duelling pistols, V. heavy 6¼

Miscellaneous Curios, Etc.

Round, heavy leather shield from Mexico, made by Aztec Indians, Diameter $22\frac{1}{2}$ in., thickness $1\frac{1}{4}$ in. at edge, slight bulging at center, of sewed leather on each side, with strong leather fringes around entire edge. There are hundreds of these fringes, each one of which is 7 in. long and $\frac{1}{4}$ in. wide. At back are two leather holds for forearm $11 \times 2\frac{1}{4}$ in. On front of shield is a red and blue painting of an Indian, 8 in. high. The shield is padded with some soft yielding material. Going with it is a quiver for holding arrows, length 21 in., width at top 7 in., at bottom 3 in. Of one solid piece of heavy brown leather, with strap from top to bottom, by which it was swung over the shoulder. Leather ornament around top $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. wide, from which are suspended black fringes 4 in. long and $\frac{3}{16}$ in. wide all around top. Long black leather fringes down side and across bottom. These fringes are $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. long and $\frac{1}{4}$ in. wide. A written description cannot convey an adequate idea of the odd and curious appearance of these two pieces. They are the finest of the kind that we have ever seen and very rare. Condition is perfect, but for a small hole near bottom of quiver, evidently punched by some arrow. Price for two pieces is.....	\$15.00
